SAMPRADYA BOOK DONATION TO HCCC LIBRARY

""Chairman of Samradaya Committee Sri.Srikantiah prepared a list of Scholarly Reference Books for HCCC Library that will be of value to the Committee in preparing the Temple Sampradaya Document and also to priests and Devotees interested in reading on these subjects. The List includes 68 Volumes of Ancient Indian Tradition and Mythology Series that cover most of the Puranas and other books on Vaisnavism, Saivism and Bhavagatam. Venky (K.Venkateswaran) acquired the books during his last visit to India. Dr.Kamala Shankar graciously donated the entire cost of books, including Shipping, for this valuable addition to our Temple Library. The Books were donated to HCCC library on January 23 after a dedication Ceremony with a Puja conducted by Priest Chandramouli. The books are now available for referencing at HCCC library""

TSUNAMI RELIEF WORK BY HCCC

Shiva-Vishnu Temple in Livermore (HCCC) has a long-standing tradition of Human Services work, locally and internationally. In keeping with this tradition, HCCC is raising funds for Tsunami relief work. One of the temple volunteers, Sri. Baskaran Tranquebar has visited and worked in the affected areas of Tamil Nadu.

Baskaran initially went to Muttakadu, a village 10 Km south of Kalpakkam that was affected by Tsunami.

Displaced villagers in tents

Living condition in the tent

Around 250 families lost their homes, fishing boats and nets and pretty much are living under the tents that were installed on the beach sand. There is no running water, no food, no vessels, no light and no sanitation. The image above is a portion of the village in their current living conditions. It was clear that the immediate needs were:

Week's supply of ration for each family, toilet supplies, some inner garment for ladies, shelter, fishing nets (4 types), motor repairs, boat repairs, new motors and boats.

On Jan 13th, with the help of 30 volunteers (all college students in and around Chennai),

Baskaran visited Saravanas provision store, Saravanas dept store and the Saravanas textile

Sorted rations ready for distribution showroom to procure the following items, Dhal - 1000 kgs (2 kg packs) , Cooking oil - 1000 liters, Coconut oil - 500 kg, Sugar - 1000 kg, Milk powder -500kg, Mustard - 500 packets (100gms each), Tamarind - 1000 kg (1 kg packets), Thoor Dhal - 1000 kg , Rice - 5000 Kg, Chilli powder - 500 packs (100gm each), Saththu Maavu - 800 packs (250gm each), Salt - 500 packs (1kg each)

Aruva manai - 800 nos, Ladies petticoat - 1500 nos, Ladies underwear - 400 nos (assorted sizes)

After distributing the rations, Baskaran also worked with the village chief and AID to put up a sample thatched hut to determine the cost of each one.

Only surviving girl in front of her hut

HCCC has initially sponsored 15 huts at a unit cost of Rs. 9,000 or $ 210. Baskaran and other HCCC officials are in contact with the AID coordinator who helped us make this service a possibility for HCCC. Discussions are on going with him about long term plans relating to HCCC's (tentative) plan on rebuilding the lives of Tsunami victims.

SHIVA BRAHMOTSAVAM - SHIVARATRI

Brahmotsava- Sahsra Deepalankaranap

Shivaratri – Jyothirlinga lighting

Brahmotsava - Procession

Shiva-Vishnu temple celebrated Shiva Brahmotsavam and Shivaratri festivals during the early part of March, with several devotees, Deeksha volunteers, priests, pachakas and office staff contribute to these annual events in full rhythm.. All in all, it was a holy and lively weekend on Mar 4th with a lot of activity and plenty of opportunity for the devotees to please Lord Shiva & Goddess Paravathi and other deities.

Shiva Brahmotsavam Program held from Friday Mar 4th (Dwajarahana) to Sunday Mar 6th (Dwajarahana) was well orchestrated by Pdt. Chandramowli and Pdt. Sampath Sridharan.. The entire program was well planned and coordinated by Samatha and Venkat Vankayalapati family much ahead of time. We thank the couple for their dedication to this cause. Shivaratri event was coordinated by Samatha and Ravi Cherukuri and we thank the couple for coming forward and assuming this responsibility. Sessa vastra event went off well on Mar 5th with temple receiving over $8000 in donations. We congratulate Vijaya Neelamraju garu and her team for conducting this event and disposing off all sessa vastras. More Dhotis and few melchats are still available at the temple office.

During those five days from Mar 4th to 9th it has been very hectic at the temple. The entire office staff, priests, coordinators, volunteers and maintenance staff performed their duties much beyond their normal routine. We THANK everybody for their dedication in supporting these celebrations with Bhakti in their heart and Beauty in their duty.

THANK YOU ALL

A picture is worth million words. The composite picture of Executive committee, Board of directors and program coordinators of 2004, all at one place celebrating ANNUAL RECOGNITION DAY for the first time in the history of HCCC. Even more important, all employees including priests, Admin staff and maintenance staff accepted the invitations and showed up for the occasion some with their spouses. We sincerely thank them for being part of the happy hour.

All these and many many others have contributed throughout the year on several occasions and made it a very successful year. It has been a great team effort for every occasion and we have enjoyed great pleasure in working together. This is our way of saying “THANK YOU” to all.

We thank our fellow devotee Amrit Duneja (now president), for hosting the function at Double Tree Inn.

HCCC-2005 TEAM

The out going team of 2004 welcomes HCCC – 2005 team. The new Board of directors Elected Akella Jagannadham for Chairman, Amrit Duneja for President and Balamani for corporate secretary positions. We all wish the new team best of luck in upholding our Institution and our Constitution (by-laws).

ANNUAL BOOK DISTRIBUTION TO LOCAL ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS

For the second year in a row, HCCC joined hands with Rotary Club of Livermore in serving the local community. This year HCCC contributed $1800 towards book distribution project to local elementary schools in Livermore. Few hundred copies of MacMillan Dictionaries with personalized name plaques were distributed to 3rd grade students at Croce and few other Elementary schools in Livermore. The long term goal of this project is to give all 3rd graders every year, until eventually all Livermore children will have this gift of words for learning and expression. Teams of Rotarians and members from HCCC helped distribute the dictionaries.

ARUDRA NATYANJALI

On Jan 23rd,2005, Sunday, HCCC celebrated its 10th Anniversary of Arudra Natyanjali Festival. The participants started registering at Noon and the program started at 12:15 p.m. About 13 dance schools participated and about 70-75 students performed in this event. The youngest dancer who participated in this event is 5 years old. Lots of enthusiasm was there among the various Bay Area dance schools. The program was attended by about 300 people. HCCC received lot of compliments on organizing this kind of a program that gives an opportunity for all young dancers to exhibit their skills. We thank Kala Iyer and Venky for their combined effort in pooling together all resources and pulling all these people together with meticulous planning. Thanks to Mohan Somarapu and other HCCC staff for all their support. Most of important we thank all dance schools and the young dancers for taking time to participate in this wonderful tradition of Arudra Natyanjali at HCCC.
